My Journey from Rape to Restoration

Focusing on forgiveness, Heather gives witness to the joy of keeping her own child conceived through the rape she experienced while ministering in the inner city. With compassion for those in crisis situations and gratitude for those serving the hurting people, Heather inspires and motivates, evoking tears and laughter—and ultimately hope in Christ Jesus.

Thank God I'm a Parent!

Co-presented by Larry and Heather

Larry and Heather acquired their full quiver in nearly every imaginable way: through birth, adoption, marriage, and the startlingly beautiful result of rape. They have embraced God's upside-down truth that you gain so much more than you lose by sacrificing for others—especially your children. Their humorous, feel-good presentation will inspire you to quit counting the days until graduation and start treasuring the moments of your children's lives.
